NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES (HIPAA NOTICE)

- This notice describes how your health information may be used and disclosed and how you can access this information. Please review it carefully.
- At Florida Cosmetic Surgery Center we have always kept your health information secure and confidential. A new law requires us to continue maintaining your privacy, to give you this notice and to follow the terms of this notice.
- The law permits us to use or disclose your health information to those involved in your treatment. For example, a review of your file by a specialist doctor whom we may involve in your care.
- We may use or disclose your health information for payment of your services. For example, we may send a report of your progress to your insurance company.
- We may use or disclose your health information for our normal healthcare operations. For example, one of our staff will enter your information into our computer.
- We may share your medical information with our business associates, such as a billing service. We have a written contract with each business associate that requires them to protect your privacy.
- We may use your information to contact you. For example, we may send newsletters or other information. We may also want to call and remind you about your appointments. If you are not home, we may leave this information on your answering machine or with the person who answers the telephone.
- In an emergency, we may disclose your health information to a family member or another person responsible for your care.
- We may release some or all of your health information when required by law.
- If this practice is sold, your information will become the property of the new owner.
- We are required to obtain an authorization for any use or disclosure of protected health information for marketing purposes: except if the communication is (A) face to face or (B) a promotional gift of nominal value.
- We must obtain an authorization should the Practice sell Protected Health Information and gain from such sale.
- Protected health information may be used or disclosed for fundraising, and you as the individual shall have an opportunity to opt-out of future requests.
- We are required to obtain an authorization for use of psychotherapy notes except in the case where our office is the originator of such notes, in the event of training purposes, or where the notes are being disclosed for government or legal proceedings.
- Except as described above, this practice will not use or disclose your health information without your prior written authorization.
- You may request in writing that we not use or disclose your health information as described above. We will let you know if we can fulfill your request.
- You have the right to know of any uses or disclosures we make with your health information beyond that above normal uses.
- As we will need to contact you from time to time, we will use whatever address or telephone number you prefer.
- You have the right to transfer copies of your health information to another practice. We will mail your files for you.
- You have the right to see and receive a copy of your health information, with a few exceptions. Give us a written request regarding information you want to see. If you also want a copy of your records, we may charge you a reasonable fee for the copies.
- You have the right to request an amendment or change to your health information. Give us your request to make changes in writing. If you wish to include a statement in your file, please give it to us in writing. We may or may not make the changes you request, but will be happy to include your statement in your file. If we agree to an amendment or change, we will not remove or alter earlier documents, but will add new information.
- You have the right to receive a copy of this notice.
- If we change any of the details of this notice, we will notify you of the change at your next appointment after the effective date of the change.
- We reserve the right to have your medical records and files reviewed by our corporation's attorney as part of our medical quality assurance.
- You may file a complaint with the Department of Health and Human Services, 200 Independence Avenue, SW, Room 509-F, Washington, DC 20201. You will not be retaliated against for filing a complaint.
- However, before filing a complaint, for more information, or for assistance regarding your health information privacy please contact our office at 407-831-4454

This notice goes into effect as of September 23, 2013
